Trustee Handbook

YGAM Trustee Handbook

INTRODUCTION

The Young Gamers and Gamblers Education Trust (YGAM) is a national education charity with a social purpose to inform, educate, safeguard and build digital resilience amongst young and vulnerable people, helping them to make informed decisions and understand the consequences around gambling and gaming. This is achieved through evidence-led, evaluated and accredited education programmes and resources for anyone that works with or cares for young & vulnerable people, including teachers, youth workers, community volunteers and mental health specialists. YGAM also works closely with universities and students to raise awareness of problematic gambling and gaming, across campus to build digital resilience amongst the student population. We are on the Gambling Commissions published RET list of approved organisations to which gambling companies are permitted to make social responsibility financial contributions in order to meet their licence conditions.

Our vision is that all young and vulnerable people are safe from gaming and gambling related harms. YGAM's social purpose is to inform, educate, safeguard and build digital resilience amongst young and vulnerable people, helping them to make informed decisions and understand the consequences around gambling and gaming. Our three-year strategy has the following four principle goals:

GOAL ONE

Strengthen the reach and influence of our Education Programme.

GOAL TWO

Evaluate our impact, share knowledge and increase understanding

GOAL THREE

Maintain the highest standard and relevance of our education content

GOAL FOUR

Continue to improve organisational effectiveness

Our social purpose and strategy is guided by and contributes to the Gambling Commissions' National Strategy to Reducing Gambling Related-Harms and meets the Public Benefit test as stipulated by the Charity Commission.

This Trustee handbook contains the following sections:

- ✓ Code of conduct for Trustees
- ✓ Trustee Behavioral Framework
- ✓ Individual Trustee Development review
- ✓ Recruitment Strategy for recruiting new Trustees

New Trustees should read this handbook alongside the YGAM Governance document and strategic plan.

Code of Conduct

A code of conduct is an agreed set of guidelines outlining the expectations, responsibilities and proper practices for trustees to abide by.

One such set of standards came out of the Nolan Committee, which published its Seven Principles of Public Life, and recommended that all public bodies adopt codes of conduct incorporating those principles. The Nolan Principles form the basis of many codes of conduct, translated into contexts outside of the public sector, and have been adopted widely by Trustee Boards

THE NOLAN PRINCIPAL - ADAPTED FOR TRUSTEES

	1. SELFLESSNESS	Trustees should act solely in terms of public benefit. They should not act in order to gain financial or other benefits for themselves, their family or their friends.
	2. INTEGRITY	Trustees should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their role as a trustee.
	3. OBJECTIVITY	In carrying out the business of the organisation, trustees should make choices based on merit.
	4. ACCOUNTABILITY	Trustees are accountable for their decisions and actions to their stakeholders and the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their role.
	5. OPENNESS	Trustees should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions they take.
	6. HONESTY	Trustees should declare any private interests relating to their trusteeship and take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public benefit.
	7. LEADERSHIP	Trustees should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

- ✓ If I wish to cease being a trustee of YGAM at any time, I will inform the chair in advance in writing, stating my reasons for leaving.

I will respect and uphold the values of YGAM and act in accordance with this Code of conduct and the Trustee Behavioural Framework.

Trustee Individual Development Review

Review Discussion Notes

Below is a proposed guide for use between the YGAM Chair and individual trustees to review individual performance and development opportunities against the agreed core YGAM trustee behaviours.

Individuals and the Chair should think about how they would rate their behaviour on a descriptive rating scale (detailed below), discuss achievements and areas for development, and set personal objectives for the forthcoming year in line with the Board's values and strategic objectives.

RECOMMENDED PROCESS:

- ✔ It is recommended that the Chair reviews progress on an annual basis with each Trustee (circa 45 – 60 minutes per review).
- ✔ The nature of the discussion should be developmental and not judgemental.
- ✔ Both individual Trustees and the Chair should prepare ahead of each meeting to ensure best insights into performance are gained.
- ✔ Discussions will be 'light touch', but will serve as a reminder of the values, behaviours and responsibilities that Trustees have signed up to in order to bring about successful outcomes for the organisation.
- ✔ Paperwork can be as formal or informal as the Chair feels appropriate and will be guided by his / her personal style. Below offers a guide and can either be completed fully (providing a clear audit trail of discussions and development objectives), or simply as a general structure for discussions.

Recruitment Strategy for Recruiting Trustees

PRE-RECRUITMENT

1a. Board Effectiveness, what does it mean for us

YGAM will review its governing document before every process (in part to act as memory jog of this document and to also ascertain if that document needs to be amended prior to recruitment). These considerations will need to include:

- ✓ Minimum or maximum number of Trustees.
- ✓ Maximum terms of office and length of tenure left with current Trustees.
- ✓ Skills, experience and diversity gaps analysis.
- ✓ Representation of different interests on the Board.
- ✓ Board effectiveness review, as a minimum light touch discussion; skills, experience and diversity gaps analysis, through to a proper review.

1b. Be clear about who we need

The YGAM Board will review its existing skills against those required for both ensuring compliance and furthering the objectives of the charity, on an annual basis. This will help us to identify where the gaps exist now and where they will be in the future.

YGAM will set diversity targets to ensure that our board is diverse enough to carry a range of views from a variety of relevant perspectives, and these will include:

- ✓ Equal representation of men and women; target being 50/50;
- ✓ Diversity of ages to ensure broad representation (i.e. recruit young trustees – those aged under 30yrs);
- ✓ Ensure that people come from a range of industry backgrounds ensuring representation from industries and sectors that we seek to represent on the Board;
- ✓ Skills and diversity should be represented in a table with a column for dates when Trustees are due to renew term or retire from the Board; this will provide a single page representation for monitoring the skills, diversity, and Trustee tenure against the requirements of the organisation;
- ✓ To have at least one person who has experienced gambling- related harm (directly or indirectly) as part of Board membership.
- ✓ Consider breaking down barriers for candidates from diverse background to apply, and plan strategy to retain their talent.

THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS

2a. Ongoing and open process

According to the National Council for Voluntary Organisations (NCVO) over 80% of charities rely on personal recommendations and word of mouth in recruiting Trustees. Word of mouth and recommendations can work in the interest of the charity saving time and money on recruitment external recruitment processes, but usually recommendations will lead to a lack of diversity and a perpetuation of likeminded people with similar views and behaviours.

Trustee recruitment within YGAM will be viewed as an ongoing process building up a 'talent pool' of a wide and diverse group of interested prospective Trustees. These people may be advocates and donors or become them when they find out more about YGAM, even if they never become Trustees.

Prospective Trustees can find out more about the role of being a trustee with one or two 'my experience of being a trustee' stories which will again feature on the YGAM website.

The YGAM behavioural framework, code of conduct, and role profile and person specification will be available for downloading on the website, so that expectations of trustees are made clear from the outset. This pre-application stage is the first stage of setting clear expectations about behaviours and the level of commitment required.

We will also provide instructions about how people can apply to join our 'talent pool' for future trustees and will make clear the particular skills and experience sought from new trustees in the coming months and years ahead.

All recruitment campaigns will point to this area of the website saving time on putting together bespoke recruitment communications for future recruitment processes.

2b. Dedicated search for specific skills and experience to attract the best

YGAM will, where possible recruit trustees through a competitive open process and will involve the Chief Executive, as well as designated members.

The steps as below will help YGAM consider the recruitment process:

Firstly, the board will review the job description and person specification and adapt to ensure that it is bespoke to the skills and experience of the trustees that you are seeking to recruit at that moment in time.

Ninety percent of the job description and person specification can remain the same, but there should be areas that are reviewed and changed to reflect the needs of every process.

Next to be defined is the timetable and commitment required by people involved in the new trustee assessment process so it is clear for candidates. These timetables should be agreed internally, published internally and communicated externally in the recruitment process.

When externally advertising or producing candidate information we will:

- ✓ Keep advertising brief and encourage people to request further information or direct them to a web page.
- ✓ Use simple, positive and informal language, don't use acronyms.
- ✓ Describe YGAM and what it does as simply as possible.
- ✓ Describe the role simply and be clear about the time commitment and expectation of people should they accept a trustee role. Candidates must know it is a voluntary commitment.
- ✓ Be clear about the skills, background and qualities required in new trustees.
- ✓ Stress the benefits of becoming a Trustee at YGAM.

Assessment

Assessment for new Trustees often happens in these stages:

1. Application.
2. Interview.
3. Board Ratification

3a. APPLICATION

Candidates will be asked to apply by submitting their CV (demonstrating career history), with a supporting statement of 2 sides of A4 or less that allows the candidate to demonstrate how their career history translates into the skills and experience sought by YGAM in trustees. This section should encourage candidates to talk about their motivation for a trustee role at YGAM. Additionally, we will supply a declaration form where candidates have to declare their eligibility to be a trustee.

The Chief Executive or Chair will include their full contact details on all material and offer all candidates the opportunity for an informal chat on the telephone if needed.

Applications should be assessed against the bespoke criteria outlined in the person specification, which will have been tailored for this particular recruitment process. The Chief Executive and Chair will shortlist candidates.

3b. INTERVIEW

Interviews for trustees need to feel informal but structured and professional. Each interview will last 45–60 minutes and will follow a template / questions such as follows:

- ✔ Welcome candidate and provide a 5 minute overview of YGAM and current board / organisational context.
- ✔ Ask candidates to provide a 5-minute overview of their career and highlight relevant experience for this role (relating to technical skills and experience sought).
- ✔ Ask candidates to describe their motivation in applying for a Trustee role at YGAM.
- ✔ What do you understand to be the challenges facing YGAM in the future and how can you help us overcome these? What is your knowledge of issues facing research led charities?
- ✔ Can you tell us about your experience in senior leadership, or even better as a trustee or committee member that highlights how you can make a contribution to our Board?
- ✔ How would you describe good governance?
- ✔ What do you think of our values and the Trustee behaviours that underpin how we operate? (Explore the fit here)
- ✔ What are your current commitments / time availability? Can you assure us that you can give us roughly xx days' time that we require from our trustees?
- ✔ Is there anything else that you would like to tell us, or you think that we need to know?
- ✔ Do you have any questions for us?

To aid keeping a record of the interview and in decision making consider developing a robust scorecard should be used – as over the page:

INTERVIEW SCORECARD FOR ASSESSING PROSPECTIVE TRUSTEES

Candidates Name: Interviewers:

Set the scene / introductions:

Who is asking	Questions	Criteria (What are you seeking in an answer?)	Comments (Record of supporting evidence)	Score (5 Excellent to 1 Inadequate)
	Motivation	Is there a strong interest in YGAM as demonstrated through previous volunteering, researching the organisation it's work?
	Understanding of challenges facing YGAM and how help overcome these	Add bespoke to current environment
	Knowledge of issues facing research charities	Add bespoke to current environment
	Relevant experience and potential contribution as a Trustee	Is there appropriate senior leadership or previous Trustee experience to understand how they will contribute at Board level?
	Understanding of good governance	Is there an awareness of the boundaries between Trustee and Exec Team, legal and compliance responsibilities, and does the candidate have a view on the balance of risk vs. Innovation
	Understanding of YGAM values and behaviours	Have they read, taken in and thought about what they mean to the role of a trustee at YGAM.
	Perceived fit with values and behaviours	Have candidates talked about how they fit with and subscribe to the values and behaviours of YGAM?
	Availability to offer a robust commitment	Demonstrate that they can meet minimum commitment and prove that they are dedicated to this volunteering opportunity.
	Other positives	Any other positive factors noted that the candidate can bring to the Trustee Board at YGAM.
	Quality of candidate questions	Are candidates demonstrating that they have really thought through what this will mean to them through their own research and probing questions and engagement with the panel?

Incorporating personality profiles into the recruitment process will help to gain a fuller understanding of each candidates 'fit' for the Board, how potential trustees will behave in meetings and interact with employees and trustee colleagues, as well as indicating their underlying motivations and values – what drives them to give up their time to be part of the Board. The completed profiles provide a guide, but the real value will come from the validation discussion (conducted by an accredited consultant) based on the profiles, exploring how candidates are likely to react in typical Board situations. For example, their capacity to balance challenge and support, their likely approach to challenging Board colleagues, how strategic and creative they are able to think and how willing they are to contribute.

The use of personality profiles, when applied appropriately, will help us to identify underlying skills, plan for future development needs and recognise where existing gaps on the Board can be filled. It will be agreed if YGAM will use personality profiles at the start of each recruitment round.

3c. RATIFICATION

The Chair and Chief Executive will present the findings and recommendations to the wider board. It is the wider Board (inc Chief Executive) whom will make the decision to appoint.

YGAM will ensure timely administration throughout the process and will ensure all candidates have a positive experience to ensure the ethos of the organisation is upheld.
